

Kawasaki Disease Foundation
CARING FOR PRECIOUS HEARTS

Bloodshot Eyes

Rash

Strawberry Tongue
and Red, Cracked Lips

Swollen Lymph
Node in Neck

Red Palms/Soles
Swollen Hands/Feet

+
fever

ASK ABOUT KAWASAKI DISEASE

If your child has had fever for at least five days, together with two or more of the symptoms listed above, ask your doctor whether he or she could have Kawasaki Disease.

Kawasaki Disease is a serious illness that causes inflammation in the coronary artery wall. If left unrecognized and untreated, it could cause serious damage to the heart. Highly effective treatment for Kawasaki Disease is available.

For more information, please visit kdfoundation.org